VVAW is a nationally known antiwar organization which, in recent months, has adopted an ever-increasing militant posture in conducting demonstrations. VVAW members have advocated civil disobedience and engaged in several seizures and blockades of important buildings and national monuments in the United States. For example, during December, 1971, VVAW members seized the Statue of Liberty, New York City; The Betsy Ross House, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; attempted to blockade the Lyndon B. Johnson Library, Austin, Texas; and, the Lincoln Memorial, Washington, D. C. VVAW members have indicated the intention to engage in civil disobedience during the forthcoming political conventions in Florida.

Demonstrations During the Democratic

Sponsored by Vietnam Veterans Against the War

On May 18, 1972, a source advised that Scott Camil, who is the Southeast Regional Coordinator of the Vietnam Veterans Against the War (VVAW), as well as the leader of the Gainesville, Florida chapter of VVAW, has withdrawn his offer of providing VVAW members to serve as marshals at the Miami, Florida demonstrations.

VVAW is an anti-war organization organized in 1967 and headquartered in New York City. Its published objective is "to demand an immediate cessation of fighting and the withdrawal of all American troops from Indochina." VVAW has participated in several demonstrations, including massive demonstration in Washington, D. C., April 19-23, 1971.

Source advised that Scott Camil and VVAW will be in Miami, Florida, in great numbers to participate and according to Scott Camil, they will organize into four main cells to perform acts of civil disobedience in wide spread area of Miami. Source is a coordinator so that the cells will not be aware of each other so that the coordination of efforts will occur.

Source advised that Scott Camil thinks that the fact that no cell will know what the other cell is doing will contribute to security.

Attached to this memorandum are two letters to the editor of "The Ithaca Journal", Ithaca, New York's daily newspaper, signed by MICHAEL W. LEACH:

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Editor, The Journal:

I am responding to a letter written Dec. 2, 1971 by Mr. Neil Wallace for clarification reasons and for the personal edification of Mr. Wallace.

His allegations ring of the same tired rhetoric used by many uninformed trying to defend a policy that is indefensible.

Yes, Vietnam Veterans Against the War Inc. is against the U.S. presence in Indochina. Maybe U.S. withdrawal will not bring a total end to hostilities, but it will certainly reduce substantially the genocide perpetuated by the air war on the civilian population of Cambodian Laos, and Vietnam.

Since the time of Ghengis Khan's invasion, the Vietnamese people have been thwarting outside intervention, including Japanese, Chinese, French, and American involvement. The basic premise is that Vietnam is a civil war and whatever form of government they end up with will probably surpass their present regime. Mr. Wallace do you realize that U.S. military involvement in Vietnam dates back to 1944-45 when OSS units supplied Viet Minh guerrillas with arms to repel the Japanese? — And they were led by one Ho Chi Minh. In September of 1945, Ho proclaimed the Democratic Republic of Vietnam. Emperor Bao Dai abdicated in favor of the new regime, and elections were held throughout most of Vietnam. Vietnam had its leader. In March of 1946 the French recognized the Democratic Republic of Vietnam as a "free state within the French union."

In November 1946 at Hai Phong, French troops opened fire on the civilian population, killing an estimated 6,000

Vietnamese, and so began one of the grossest wars of annexation in history. The story of Vietnam has been one of constant struggle against outside aggression and they will not accept any puppet government of the U.S., or anyone else, no matter what our motivations.

Yes, VVAW is against U.S. involvement in Indochina, because we have been the instrument of U.S. aggression, or should I say intervention, and we have seen what this war has done to the peoples of Indochina while causing our own country to be torn and alienated. And, we realistically hope and feel that by speaking out maybe we can save a few lives, no matter what color, and bring the will of 73 per cent of the American people to bear on a callous and arrogant administration. We are not presumptuous to think that a residual force or continuing the bombing of Indochina will insure the self determination of a people that we do not appreciate nor can begin to comprehend.

As to Mr. Wallace's allegations that we (VVAW) have never protested Communist aggression or asked the North to demand peace, both are incorrect. In coalition with Peoples' Coalition for Peace and Justice, in August 1971, VVAW sent Joe Urgo (a Vietnam Vet) to Hanoi for direct negotiations with Hanoi, and we fully endorse the Provisional Revolutionary Government's seven point peace proposal presented to the Paris peace talks by Madame Nguyen Thi Binh on July 1, 1971, which the Nixon administration chose to reject. Their peace plan does explicitly make provision for free elections and many other issues that concern this country including the release of all POWs upon cessation of hostilities. It would be a true exercise in democracy if the American people would study the seven point proposal and demand the right to decide for themselves by popular vote whether or not withdrawal, carefully aimed at the '72 elections, is satisfactory to them or not. If this had been done before the Gulf of Tonkin, 55,000 young Americans and countless Vietnamese might have had the right to decide their own destiny.

As for Mr. Wallace's statement that all non-Communists were able to run in the last election, this is a joke. Thieu purposely made it virtually impossible for any legitimate candidate to oppose him by requiring them to acquire endorsement from the many provinces and using the threat of political reprisal to anyone who offered such endorsement. The Thieu-Ky regime is one of the most corrupt in modern times, and this is what Mr. Wallace obviously supports and what our years of suffering have been for. I doubt, Mr. Wallace, if you have any more knowledge of Vietnam, North or South, than you do about Vietnam Veterans Against the War. If you think the South is free, I suggest you go there, look around and ask yourself why it is necessary to have 100,000 (by conservative estimate) political prisoners, the largest military in the world supporting them, in order to defeat (unsuccessfully) an indigenous guerrilla army which undoubtedly has the support of the people.

Michael W. Leach,
268 Bundy Rd.

Editor's Note: The writer says that anyone who desires a copy of the seven-point peace proposal or the objectives of the Vietnam Veterans Against the War should contact him at 273-6362.

'Vietnamization'

Editor, The Journal:

Someone once said that in war truth is the first casualty. Isn't it interesting that Americans can be as altruistic when discussing what is being done in their names? Specifically, I speak of Ivan Jansen's letter to the editor Nov. 18. Generally I speak of those Americans who refuse to examine what is being done in America's name. It is much easier to let the politicians do it than it is to examine the acts and policies both at home and in Indochina. After all, isn't that what we elected them for.

The air war in Indochina has many facets and ramifications that cannot be discussed in a letter; however, I must marvel at Mr. Jansen's ability to dissect percentages, tonnages, increases, and decreases without so much as a reference to human life ... Vietnam for many has become a set of statistics that piles up year after year, body count upon body count, without them ever completely realizing the sheer extent of devastation reaped by our air war.

Yes, the politicians will tell us that Vietnamization is working, our objectives are being met, etc., etc., etc. But they don't tell us that Vietnamization means changing the color of the bodies from white to yellow. We went to save them from communism in the name of democracy and apple pie. Instead they end up with a dictator, no free elections, and millions of homeless refugees, not to mention their dead.

And the war goes on with U.S. air strikes spanning the borders of Cambodia, Laos, North and South Vietnam. Yes, we can afford to drop tons on tons of weaponry in our so-called protective reaction strikes without ever seeing the faces of the children, villagers, and livestock that might happen to live there, but are no more.

When the Nixon administration talks of disengagement, it does not mean all troops and air power. Residual strength and airpower will remain as long as politicians deem it necessary — unless the American people force them to concede. The politicians and monied interests tell us that it is for the good of the Indochinese, but we never bothered to ask them.

A generation from now the Vietnamese and casualties can ask with validity the same questions John Kerry posed before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee on April 22, 1971.

"We are also here to ask, and we are here to ask vehemently, where are the leaders of our country? Where is the leadership? We are here to ask where are McNamara, Rostow, Bundy, Johnson and so many others? Where are they now that we, the men whom they sent off to war, have returned? These are the commanders who have deserted their troops, and there is no more serious crime in the law of war ... These men have left all the casualties and retreated behind a pious shield of public rectitude. They have left the real stuff of their reputations bleaching behind them in the sun."

Michael W. Leach,
258 Bundy Rd.

Editor's Note: The writer is local coordinator of Vietnam Veterans Against the War.

On May 16, 1972, a source advised that the Pittsburgh Chapter of the VVAW was formed during early 1971, primarily to bring an immediate cessation of fighting and the withdrawal of all American military personnel from Indochina.

The Pittsburgh Chapter of the VVAW maintains headquarters at 3601 Boulevard of the Allies and has about ten "active" members. Members of the organization have participated in antiwar efforts in Pittsburgh and Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and Washington, D. C., including acts of civil disobedience.

On April 27, 1972, a second source advised that the Pittsburgh Chapter of the VVAW is affiliated with the national organization of the same name, but has declared its intention to operate independently. It has and will continue to actively support actions of the national organization where it considers these actions to be relevant.

VIETNAM VETERANS AGAINST THE WAR

Indefinite
The Vietnam Veterans Against the War (VVAW) was founded in the spring of 1967 by six young Vietnam veterans in New York City. At the beginning of 1968, with 600 members, VVAW opened a national office, founded the first GI newspaper, "Vietnam GI," and sent close to 500 veterans into the Mc Carthy campaign to beat down the red baiters. After getting gassed at the Democratic Convention in Chicago and caught in the general "down" of the peace movement, VVAW was nearly inactive until the moratoriums in the fall of 1969. Members of the VVAW led student strikes on major campuses across the country and battled Veterans Administration Hospital authorities over threats to throw amputee Vietnam veterans out for signing anti-war petitions. At present, membership of the VVAW nationally, consists of 8,500 members.

b7C
On May 26, 1972, a source who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that JOHN R. SMITH, Regional Coordinator for the Connecticut Chapter of the VVAW, sent a communication from the Connecticut VVAW Office on or about May 9, 1972, to the North Vietnam Embassy, Paris, France, offering to send a medical assistance team to North Vietnam. (C) 1

Source advised that there are no known members or associates of the Connecticut Chapter of the VVAW who would be eligible for the above assignment and that it was his (C) u

RE: VIETNAM VETERANS AGAINST THE WAR (VVAW),
SIT-IN AT REPUBLICAN HEADQUARTERS,
SEATTLE, WASHINGTON, MAY 11, 1972

Vietnam Veterans Against the War (VVAW) has publicly declared its objective is to demand the immediate cessation of all fighting in, and withdrawal of American troops from Indochina. The organization consists of Vietnam war veterans and a large percentage of anti-war activists who are not veterans.

On May 12, 1972, [REDACTED] Seattle Police Department, Seattle, [REDACTED], reported seven persons were cited for criminal trespass following a peaceful sit-in at the King County Republican Party headquarters, Seattle, Washington, during the afternoon of the previous day. The participants distributed leaflets indicating they were members or supporters of the Vietnam Veterans Against the War (VVAW). The demonstrators were escorted from the premises without difficulty by police about fifteen minutes after the sit-in began.

On May 19, 1972, [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] a copy of an offense report which indicated [REDACTED] of the King County Republican Headquarters, 1319 Second Avenue, Seattle, stated seven persons entered the office about 12:05 p.m., March 11, 1972, and began telling the employees they would have to leave as the office was being taken over. A heated discussion occurred among [REDACTED] and the seven, and [REDACTED] then called the Police Department.

[REDACTED] and [REDACTED] arrived and maintained order until the arrival of [REDACTED]. The latter inquired concerning the leader of the sit-in, and [REDACTED] said he was [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] was asked the intentions of the group, and he said to remain until 6:00 p.m. and then depart.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

ENCLOSURE

RE: VIETNAM VETERANS AGAINST THE WAR (VVAW),
SIT-IN AT REPUBLICAN HEADQUARTERS,
SEATTLE, WASHINGTON, MAY 11, 1972

Upon inquiry as to what had transpired to that point, [REDACTED] said his group had gone from office to office giving the occupants the option of remaining or leaving.

[REDACTED] told [REDACTED] his group had two options: leave when asked or be arrested. [REDACTED] said they had three minutes to vacate the premises after [REDACTED] requested they leave. None left, so all seven were taken into custody and transported to the police department where they were issued citations for criminal trespass and released. The subjects are described as follows:

ReMiami airtel 6/1/72.

Your request to interview on SAC authority local and "visitor" VVAW members, including students, who will be in Miami during period up to and including completion of Republican National Convention is denied. Bureau has carefully considered your request and appreciates your interest in interviewing persons who might be in position to furnish reliable information concerning possible violations of Federal laws during the political conventions. However, Bureau considers it unlikely that militant VVAW members who will participate in demonstrations in Miami would cooperate with FBI. Further, when weighing the potential disadvantages of adverse publicity against the FBI should several VVAW members complain of harassment, it is not considered in Bureau's best interest to grant authority for large-scale interview program of VVAW members despite the fact it would be done on a selective basis.

As you are aware, our missions during forthcoming political conventions and during all other demonstrations are to provide advance intelligence information and to conduct investigations when Federal laws are violated. Numerous contacts with VVAW members prior to any violation of Federal laws or outbreak of violence as indicated in referenced airtel for purpose of obtaining the cooperation of VVAW members concerning possible violations of Federal antiriot statutes, bombings and related matters could conceivably be misconstrued or purposely twisted by VVAW resulting in contacts with news media alleging that Government expects riots, bombings and other violations during the conventions and has already focused on the VVAW as instigator. On basis of all information furnished to date concerning situation during conventions, Bureau sees no urgent or compelling reason why contemplated interviews of selected VVAW members who might possibly be in position to cooperate or have information regarding possible violations of Federal laws cannot be handled under current procedures. If urgent situation exists, background regarding individuals with whom interview desired can be obtained telephonically or by teletype from field office covering individual's residence and then Bureau authority requested by most expeditious means warranted.

In event there are additional factors which Bureau should consider relating to your request, promptly advise and additional consideration will be given.

NOTE:

57C
b7D
Miami has pointed out that although at present there is not a large volume of VVAW activity in Miami area, large influx of VVAW members is expected during the forthcoming political conventions. Miami points out that Scott Gault, highest ranking leader of VVAW in Florida will be in Miami and have a private plane all facilities of the VVAW. For this reason Miami requested authority to interview on SAC authority all local and visiting members, including students, in attempt to obtain cooperation concerning possible violations of Federal laws. Other purpose of interviews was to have deterrent effect on individuals who might otherwise engage in unlawful activities. Current informant coverage of VVAW is excellent and it is considered that any large-scale interviewing program of VVAW members in Miami could result in developments contrary to Bureau's best interest since VVAW is extremely publicity-prone organization which could easily consider itself harassed and singled out by FBI unjustly should numerous VVAW members be interviewed for no reason that is clear out and in absence of actual violations of Federal laws. This has been coordinated with SA [redacted] Research Section, Domestic Intelligence Division.

SUBJECT: VIETNAM VETERANS AGAINST

Re Bureau letter to Albany, 4/28/72.

Survey Results:

1. There are presently two VVAW chapters in the Miami Division, one for Greater Miami (Dade County) and the second covers Broward County (Hollywood, Ft. Lauderdale and environs). These chapters are autonomous but advise each other of public activities.

2. There are currently no more than eight active VVAW-Greater Miami members. There are about 15 currently active VVAW-Broward County members. Investigations are being conducted to identify all current area VVAW members. Pending and newly-opened investigations will include military backgrounds and determinations whether individual VVAW members are bona fide Vietnam veterans. Recommendations for or against ADEX inclusion will be made in each case.

3. Miami receives information concerning area
VVAW activities from [REDACTED]

Miami also receives information regarding VVAW-Greater Miami activities from the Intelligence Unit, Dade County Public Safety Department (DCPSD), Miami,
[REDACTED]

Miami expects greatly increased VVAW activity in this area due to the upcoming political conventions.
VVAW members from outside South Florida reportedly will be here in large numbers, particularly, for the Republican Convention in August. The charged atmosphere is certain to stimulate local VVAW activities and probably will inspire joint actions by local and visiting VVAW members. Miami recommendation to meet this potential problem is set out in below request of Bureau.

Miami is preparing an LHM setting out results of VVAW investigation in this area. For the immediate information of the Bureau, VVAW activity in South Florida has been limited. Poor leadership and general apathy have combined to render local chapters virtually impotent.
They have no office space; no fixed meeting place; irregular meetings; no funds and no prospects for funds. Their few and intermittent activities, such as anti-Vietnam war leaflets distributions, have been poorly coordinated.
They generally align themselves with several other local peace groups to ensure at least a modest turnout for a planned activity. It is further noted that none of their activities have resulted in arrests.

There has been no violence, nor intimations of same in local VVAW public activities. It is felt, however, that SCOTT CAMIL, above, who will return to the Miami area (where his family resides) prior to the Democratic Convention, could effect a radical change in the South Florida VVAW outlook. He reportedly will be accompanied to Miami by Gainesville, Florida, VVAW hardliners. Additionally, there is no doubt that the local VVAW reins are his for the asking, and little doubt that he will take these reins. His leadership could galvanize the local chapters. An immediate drive to recruit militant VVAW members could be expected. To counteract this eventuality, the following is submitted:

REQUEST OF BUREAU

The Bureau is requested to authorize Miami to interview, on SAC authority, local and "visitor" VVAW members, including students, this authorization to extend until the completion of the Republican Convention. Those interviewed will be advised that the basis for contact is to obtain their cooperation concerning possible violations of Federal anti-riot statutes, bombings, and related matters in connection with the political conventions. Such interviews are expected to produce individuals with potential for furnishing pertinent information during the upcoming conventions. Interviews could also be expected to have a deterrent effect on individuals who might otherwise engage in unlawful activities during these conventions. Authorization to conduct these interviews under SAC authority would enable Miami to conduct selective interviews promptly in a compressed time situation, the period ending with the Republican Convention.

MINNESOTA VIETNAM VETERANS AGAINST THE WAR (MVVAW)

The Vietnam Veterans Against the War (VVAW) is a veterans organization with a national office located at 25 West 26th Street, New York City, whose published objective is as follows: "To demand an immediate cessation of fighting and the withdrawal of all American troops from Indochina. We cannot allow one more human being to be killed in Indochina."

The MVVAW and all of its members are opposed to any type of violent activity or disruptive acts of civil disobedience. It has continually emphasized a non-violent theme and has not been a party to any violent demonstrations. The main activities of the group continue to be the providing of speakers speaking on non-violent approaches to the resistance of United States policies in Southeast Asia, publicizing the organization's anti-war position and the carrying out of selected non-violent demonstrations as it calls for the withdrawal of U. S. forces from Indochina. They encourage communications with Minnesota legislators and U. S. congressmen, emphasizing their anti-Vietnam War position.

VIETNAM VETERANS AGAINST THE WAR (VVAW),
UNIVERSITY OF OKLAHOMA (OU) CHAPTER,
NORMAN, OKLAHOMA

VVAW is an antiwar organization organized in 1967 with headquarters in New York City. Its first published objective is "to demand an immediate cessation of fighting and the withdrawal of all American troops from Indochina."

Origin

The September 11, 1971, issue of the "Oklahoma Daily," OU student newspaper, Norman, Oklahoma, contained an article entitled "Vets to Form OU Chapter." The article noted that a movement was under way to organize a local chapter of the VVAW at OU. Dan Dryz, Tulsa graduate, and Steve Langdon were named in the article as organizers of the movement and had operated a booth in the OU Student Union to sign interested veterans, distribute literature and answer questions.

The OU VVAW was formed recently by Daniel (Dan) Dryz, an OU student and a veteran.

The aims of the OU VVAW are to protest the Vietnam war and the draft, but any activity will be peaceful and non-violent.

UNIVERSITY OF OKLAHOMA CHAPTER

OBJECTIVES OF VIETNAM VETERANS AGAINST THE WAR, INC.

1. To demand an immediate cessation of fighting and the withdrawal of all American troops from Indochina. We cannot allow one more human being to be killed in Indochina.
2. To demand Congress enact legislation for the immediate termination of all funds being utilized by the United States government, its allies and the Central Intelligence Agency to support their illegal operations in Latin America, Africa, China, Europe and the countries of Vietnam, Cambodia, Laos, and Thailand.
3. To demonstrate that our military tactics dehumanize soldiers and civilians, and to make clear the United States government is prosecuting an illegal, unjust and immoral war in Indochina.
4. To show Americans that their society is structured by racism which lets us view all non-whites as less than human. This racism pushes our minorities through inferior schools and into the combat arms. Thus, we send our minorities off to die in disproportionately high numbers while we kill Asians indiscriminately. We demand that the military recognize its complicity in America's domestic and international racism.
5. To make clear that the United States has never undertaken an extensive open investigation of American war crimes in Indochina. We demand that the U.S. government, in its war in Indochina, affirm the principles of Nuremberg. As former G.I.'s, we recognize the responsibility of the individual soldier to refrain from committing war crimes. We also recognize that the responsibility and guilt of war crimes committed in the name of America lies with our policy makers at all levels.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

6. To demand that all active-duty servicemen and women be afforded the rights as citizens that are guaranteed by the United States Constitution and the Bill of Rights that are presently denied them by the Uniform Code of Military Justice. We are appalled that servicemen and women are treated as less-than-first-class citizens. We endorse the efforts of our active-duty sisters and brothers in their struggle to democratize the military.
7. To support all military personnel refusing to serve in wars of aggression at home and abroad. We demand Congress enact legislation for the immediate repatriation with full amnesty to those brothers and sisters who are in prison or in self-exile by reason of their refusal to serve in the military. We support all persons refusing to be drafted.
8. To demand immediate legislation to provide proper care and services for all veterans in V.A. hospitals; to make available job training and placement for every returning veteran; and to provide the funds and means necessary for their educational and vocational endeavors.
9. To affirm that the membership is not only concerned with ending the war, but changing the domestic, social, political, and economic institutions that have caused and permitted the continuance of war.

[REDACTED] was overheard to state that he had become very disappointed in the student apathy directed toward liberal organizations on the OU campus. He said the activities of the VVAW had been severely hampered by disinterest on the part of the OU student body.

[REDACTED] a member of the OU VVAW chapter, stated he believed that the VVAW had not done enough to stir interest within the university community concerning the Vietnam war. [REDACTED] 2/18/72)

[REDACTED] was overheard to state that on April 6, 1972, a benefit rock concert was held by the OU VVAW on the OU campus to show financial support for a newly formed organization in Lawton, Oklahoma, known as the Lawton - Fort Sill United Front (LFSUF). The LFSUF was recently formed by the existing G. I. Rights Committee and an Indian group called the Native American Rights Movement.

The LFSUF is headed by Scott Cade and Jody Bateman, who are principal members of the "Barrage" newspaper staff.

[REDACTED] 4/10/72)

In October, 1971 [REDACTED] Intelligence, Police Department, Lawton, Oklahoma, advised that the October, 1971, issue of "Barrage" was distributed in very limited quantities in Lawton and Fort Sill, Oklahoma, and the articles in "Barrage" were anti-military, anti-police, anti-establishment, and antiwar.

[REDACTED] an independent radical group known as The Jones Family's Grandchildren (JFG).

The JFG was organized in September 1969, by former leaders of the University of Oklahoma Chapter, SDS, Norman, Oklahoma, now defunct. During 1970 and 1971, The JFG was inactive except for the printing and distribution of several issues of the group's underground newspaper, "The JFG." In early 1972, The JFG reportedly was defunct.

SDS was founded during June, 1962, at Port Huron, Michigan, and in the 1960s functioned as the leading New Left campus-based student organization in the United States. From an initial posture of "participatory democracy," SDS moved to a radical-revolutionary position, with debate centering on how best to create a revolutionary youth movement. Internal factionalism produced a split during the SDS National Convention in June, 1969, which resulted in the following three factions: Weatherman; Worker Student Alliance (WSA) and Revolutionary Youth Movement (RYM). The Weatherman and RYM are no longer affiliated with SDS. The WSA continues to use the name SDS and maintains its national headquarters in Chicago, Illinois.

According to [REDACTED] of the OU WRL, in early April, 1972, a conference of "radical groups" known as Peace Caravan would be held in Lawton, Oklahoma, to show support for a newly formed organization in Lawton known as the LESUF. [REDACTED] said members of the OU VVAW, WRL and other groups were expected to attend the Peace Caravan. It was hopeful that the conference would establish better communications, and those attending would discuss matters of mutual interest.

[REDACTED] 4/10/72)

Approximately twenty persons attended the Peace Caravan in Lawton, Oklahoma. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] 4/10/72)

The OU VVAW and WRL sponsored a "Teach-In" at OU on April 18, 1972, which consisted of several speakers who spoke on various subjects of the Vietnam war. Among the speakers were Dan Dryz, president of the OU VVAW, [REDACTED] OU VVAW Chapter representative, and [REDACTED] member of the OU VVAW. The speeches made by the above individuals concerned the history of the conflict in Vietnam and personal experiences of those who gave speeches.

[REDACTED] 4/19/72)

A member of the OU VVAW has mentioned that the OU VVAW will sponsor a demonstration protesting U. S. involvement in Vietnam at Shephard Mall Shopping Center in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, on April 22, 1972, and the OU VVAW will seek support of the OU WRL. Activities will include passing out leaflets and possibly a guerrilla theater.

assistance of the OU VVAW. All activities were peaceful the OU WRL and OU VVAW. These activities were as follows:

antiwar leaflets distributed at OU Air Force ROTC building, talks with passersby, lying outstretched on the sidewalk to symbolize Vietnam dead from escalated air war, painted signs on buildings and walkways expressing antiwar senti-latter of which resulted in voluntary moratorium and teachin

Finances

The VVAW recently became a recognized student organization at OU, Norman, Oklahoma, and as such is qualified to receive university funds for operational expenses. As of September 22, 1971, the Appropriations Sub-Committee of the OU Student Congress approved tentative appropriations including $200 for VVAW.

The OU VVAW chapter has no regular income, but does receive some money from donations and recently from school funds. The Student Congress has now approved $200 for VVAW for operational expenses. VVAW has received no gifts, equipment, or other financial support from individuals, groups, or organizations.

CAMIL SAID HE HOPES TO BRING FIFTEEN THOUSAND VETERANS TO THE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION AND EXPECTS A SMALLER NUMBER FOR THE DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION. HE SAID THE VVAW WILL HAND OUT ANTI-WAR LITERATURE, SHOW FILMS AND POSSIBLY START A "WAR CRIMES" INVESTIGATION. CAMIL WAS DESCRIBED AS VVAW OVERSEER OF PLANS FOR THE CONVENTIONS. Reference is made to FBI teletypes from Miami dated May 12, 1972; from Jacksonville dated May 29, 1972; and, from [REDACTED] dated June 9, 1972, all captioned as above and containing considerable information relating to plans of militant VVAW to engage in violent and disruptive acts during the Republican and Democratic National Convention in Miami, Florida.

This will confirm a conversation on June 13, 1972, between Mr. Guy L. Goodwin, Section Chief, Special Litigation Division of your division, and Special Agent [REDACTED] of this Bureau. During this conversation, it was pointed out that one of the most valuable sources of information contained in the referenced teletypes

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on April 28, 1972, as follows:

There was a small gathering of VVAW members including some regional coordinators in Washington, D. C. on April 17, 1972. Some of the persons were gathered on the steps of the Capitol Building and others were in a meeting at a Lutheran Church located at 9th and Maryland, N. E. There were 19 members from Connecticut, 11 members from Pennsylvania, four members from Milwaukee, and some from New Jersey for a total of approximately 40 or 50 persons.

RUSTY LINDLEY is the legislation liaison officer for VVAW and a resident lobbyist who resides in Washington, D. C.

Some of the people gathered early in the afternoon at Room 4221, New Senate Office Building, where Secretary of State ROGERS was testifying for the Senate Foreign Relations Committee. During the hearing some of the members of the hearing room and [REDACTED]

The proposed demonstration in Washington was given the name, "Rolling Thunder III", inasmuch as it was the third protective reaction by VVAW in response to the escalated bombing venture by the President of the United States.

RE: VIETNAM VETERANS AGAINST THE WAR

[REDACTED]

On Tuesday, April 18, 1972, a number of persons gathered at the church at 9th and Maryland, N. E., and then proceeded to a hearing where Secretary of Defense LAIRD was testifying.

67C
67D
Immediately after LAIRD's testimony, a number of persons went to the steps of the Capitol Building and were involved in a "token occupation." More individuals sympathetic to the VVAW cause arrived.

On Tuesday night, a few VVAW members including PETE MAHONEY of the National Office in New York, traveled to the University of Maryland to talk to VVAW representatives and observe a meeting of a Trotskyite group.

[REDACTED]

Late on Tuesday night, a meeting took place where plans were laid to occupy the Washington Monument.

[REDACTED] The word was put out that there would be some activity on Thursday when, in fact, the occupation was planned for Wednesday.

The group planned to enter the Washington Monument at approximately 9:30 or 10 p.m. and would not leave the monument when it closed at 11 p.m. After the monument closed, the VVAW members would notify the building guard they had liberated the property, force them to leave, and fly the flag up the top of the monument. The occupation of silent salute. The group thereafter marched to the Pentagon where they stood in the rain and cold to protest U. S. military action in Vietnam. There were some speeches regarding the war and one person read a release which had been written by E. DEL ROSARIO.

There was some difficulty encountered at the Arlington Cemetery inasmuch as the American Nazi Party had planned a memorial to HITLER on that day.

On Saturday night, a group went back to the urban commune on Monroe Street. [REDACTED]

b7C
b7D [REDACTED] It was apparent from the statements made by [REDACTED] that there had been considerable lying about the number of persons and overall size of the demonstration in Washington, D. C. It was apparent that a few days after the demonstration was to have occurred that more VVAW chapters throughout the country had activities and demonstrations planned for May 4, 1972.

VVAW members were received warmly by aides of the offices of Senators, FULBRIGHT, PERCY, and PROXMIRE, and HARTKE.

On Sunday, April 23, 1972, it was generally accepted that there would not be any large action by the VVAW in Washington, D. C., and a number of the visitors departed.

RE: VIETNAM VETERANS AGAINST THE WAR

the Washington Monument and hanging of the flag was to be a signal for all VVAW members from around the country to travel to Washington, D. C. The entire operation was rather poorly planned.

On Wednesday, April 19, 1972, several persons arrived to assist in the demonstrations including E. DEL ROSARIO from the VVAW National Office in New York.

During Wednesday afternoon there was additional planning and surveilling of the Washington Monument; however, when the VVAW members arrived at the monument on the evening of April 18, 1972, there were numerous police officers waiting for them. At that point the "mission" was aborted.

On Thursday, April 20, 1972, there was a token demonstration on the steps of the Capitol while VVAW awaited the arrival of more members. Some VVAW members spoke with U. S. Senators and Representatives in an effort to get congressional sympathy for their cause.

On Friday, April 21, 1972, the VVAW members were ordered to leave the church they had used as a headquarters and for sleeping by noon.

A few VVAW members were involved in a token demonstration at the Capitol Building and some participated in a demonstration march by law students from Georgetown University.

A few VVAW members stayed with a group of Catholic University students who live in a urban commune at 1225 Monroe. The house is occupied by nine women and their boyfriends and is a well-run house.

On Friday night, there was planning for a demonstration to be held on Saturday. The demonstration was to include forty persons who were to lay a wreath at the tomb of the Unknown Soldier at Arlington Cemetery.

On Saturday, April 22, 1972, 40 persons marched to Arlington National Cemetery where they laid a wreath at the tomb of the Unknown Soldier and thereafter stood in a

Dear Friend,

The National Steering Committee of Vietnam Veterans Against the War met for its quarterly convention in Houston, Texas on April 7 to April 11, 1972.

The discussions there centered around our successful projects and programs and their further implementation; our project failures and organizational problems and methods of correcting them; a redefinition of Regional Coordinators responsibilities and an expansion of the National Coordination Staff to facilitate our expanding programs.

These discussions led to our decision to continue our militant actions against the war. We also decided it is necessary to secure and build our community base through continuing agitation.

Al Hubbard and Joe Urgo did not stand for re-election, saying they wanted a rest from National VVAW responsibilities. Mike McCain, Del Rosario, and Rusty Bronaugh were re-elected and Peter Mahoney, Regional Coordinator for Louisiana; Jack McCloskey California State Representative; and Barry Romo, Regional Coordinator for California-Hawaii-Nevada were elected.

VVAW is working in many areas in our communities. Our action programs range from active duty GI projects to community survival programs. We work in Veterans' Hospital rehabilitation programs. We are aiding our brothers in psychiatric counseling programs. We are working with community based organizations such as La Raza Unida, Black Panther Party, N.W.R.O., United Farm Workers Organizing Committee, Angela Davis Defense Committee, Billy Dean Smith Defense Committee and many more.

Thru the implementation of our revised objectives (enclosed) we will be continuing and expanding our community support and survival programs. The time will come when all our strength and energy will be directed against those conditions here in our land which sent us to murder our Brothers and sisters in Indo-China.

Our society has taught us inhumanity. The Vietnamese people's struggle has taught us the falsity of those lessons which took us to Indo-China to commit genocide in the name of democracy and peace. The lessons which we learned, we will teach to others. Racism, sexism, and institutionalized oppression must be confronted and exposed. The exploitation of the people of the world must stop. Vietnam Veterans Against the War will continue to fight for the liberation of the people of Indo-China; the people of America; the people of the world.

Your financial aid and personal support has enabled us to continue our work. In this most crucial period of our history, it becomes more important than ever to stop the insane policies of Nixon and his administration. Struggle and sacrifice are called for to end the domination of so much of the world by the U.S. and its business interests.

CONFIDENTIAL

REVISED OBJECTIVES OF VVAW

1. To demand an immediate cessation of fighting and the withdrawal of all American troops, planes, and military and economic aid from Indochina. We cannot allow one more human being to be killed in Southeast Asia.
2. To demand the immediate termination of all other operations by the United States government, its agencies, and American business interests that are designed to suppress the rightful struggles for liberation and self-determination of the Peoples of Africa, Asia, and Latin America. This includes the maintenance of dictatorial governments, economic domination, and the theft of the natural resources of other countries.
3. To demand that all active-duty servicemen and women be afforded the same rights that are guaranteed by the United States Constitution and Bill of Rights that are presently denied by the Uniform Code of Military Justice. We are appalled that our active-duty GI's are treated as less than first class citizens. We endorse the efforts of our of our active-duty sisters and brothers in their struggle to democratize the military.
4. To support all military personnel refusing to serve against their consciences in wars at home and abroad. We demand that Congress enact legislation for the immediate repatriation to those brothers and sisters who are in prison or in self-exile by reason of their refusal to serve in the military. It must also involve an end to all repression and a freeing of all political prisoners.
5. To demand there be no distinctions as to types of discharges and that a single type of discharge be issued, and that this be retroactive. We also demand all veterans receive all rights and benefits under the VA; and that compensation for disabilities be based solely upon the degree of disability for veterans and their families, without regard to sex, race, rank, or length of service.
6. To make clear that the United States has never undertaken an extensive operation in the name of American war crimes in Indochina. We demand that the United States government, in its war in Indochina, affirm the principles of Nuremberg. As active-duty and former GI's we recognize the responsibility and guilt of the individual soldier to refrain from committing war crimes. We also recognize that the responsibility and guilt of war crimes committed in the name of America, lies with our policy makers at all levels.
7. To show Americans that our society is permeated by racism, which manipulates whites into viewing non-whites as inferior or less than human. This racism pushes Third World People through inferior schools to inferior jobs and into combat arms. Thus Third World People are sent off to die in disproportionately high numbers as we kill Asians indiscriminately. We also demand the U.S. military recognize its complicity in America's domestic and international racism.
8. To show that sexism plays a major part in promoting war. We must show Americans our society is permeated by sexism, which forces an inferior status upon women; reducing them to subservient sexual objects, and which robs both men and women of their natural growth. This institutionalized sexism channels women into unfulfilling, lower paying jobs which are servile in nature and purpose; it exploits their bodies for sex and profit; and it degrades and dehumanizes them by a double standard of morality wholly dependent on the myth of male supremacy. This sexism is exploited by the military, officially defining servicewomen as subordinate and thoroughly subjugating them to servile work and the role of a sexual object. We resolve to fight sexism within our society, within our own organization, and within ourselves.
9. To dedicate ourselves to these principles and objectives which directly relate to the imperialist suppression of the People of the World by the United States government. We understand this war is imperialist in origin and affirm that the membership of VVAW is not only concerned with ending this war, but with changing the domestic, social, political, and economic institutions that have caused and perpetuated its continuance.

Memorandum to Mr. E. S. Miller

RE: [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] sympathizes with VVAW opposition to war but does not believe in violence.

OBSERVATIONS:

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] is in the forefront of planning for violence during the national political conventions in Miami. If we can embroil VVAW leadership in a Federal Grand Jury action of serious consequence at this late date, it would probably frustrate much of their planning to date and go a long way to discourage others of like mind. In view of the foregoing, this situation was brought to the attention of Section Chief Guy L. Goodwin, Special Litigation Section, Internal Security Division of the Department, on 6/13/72. Goodwin stated he desired to review the entire matter in depth and would like to initiate Grand Jury action against VVAW leaders, if possible, [REDACTED]. Goodwin indicated that based on a preliminary review of the information available, it appears that several VVAW leaders could be indicted for conspiracy to violate antiriot or other Federal laws.

The VVAW was founded in the Spring of 1967
by six young Vietnam veterans in New York members, VVAW opened a national office, founded the first GI newspaper "Vietnam

Mc Carthy campaign to beat down the red

Democratic Convention in Chicago and caught in the general "down" of the peace movement, VVAW was nearly inactive until the moratoriums in the Fall of 1969. Members of the VVAW led student strikes on major campuses across the country and hatted Veterans Ad-

PURPOSE:

To recommend attached letters be sent to Honorable H. R. Haldeman at The White House and Acting Attorney General advising that McGovern for President Committee is in contact with militant Vietnam Veterans Against the War (VVAW) and furnishing vehicle to VVAW for antiwar campaigning in California.

BACKGROUND:

VVAW is major antiwar organization in U. S. today and has adopted ever-increasing militant approach to demonstrations. VVAW has recently advocated civil disobedience and has engaged in seizures and blockades of major buildings and national monuments, including Statue of Liberty, New York City; Betsy Ross House, Philadelphia; Lincoln Memorial, Washington, D. C.; and Lyndon B. Johnson Library, Austin. VVAW members have expressed definite intention to engage in disruption during forthcoming political conventions.

Los Angeles informant has advised that an unidentified representative from McGovern for President Committee, which supports the campaign of Senator George McGovern (D, South Dakota) for President in 1972 election, attended a regular meeting of VVAW in Los Angeles on [REDACTED]. At this meeting the McGovern representative stated that a station wagon would be leased by the McGovern Committee and furnished to VVAW for the purpose of "barnstorming" college campuses between Los Angeles and San Francisco during period 5/30 - 6/2/72 to voice opposition to Vietnam war.

(VVAW)

Source advised on May 8, 1972, that Vietnam Veterans Against the War (VVAW) organizers from Arkansas arrived in New Orleans in late Spring, 1971. They were hailed by local subversives as the most promising and effective anti-war organization in New Orleans. Their activities have consisted of anti-war demonstrations as well as demonstrations demanding prison reforms. The New Orleans VVAW has not spoken of, organized or participated in any violent activities and its membership has always been small. Even though local VVAW members have traveled to out-of-state VVAW conferences, as of late Spring, 1972, the New Orleans VVAW has not had any close contact with the national headquarters and is now virtually inactive locally.

The local VVAW leader later left New Orleans in April, 1972, to join the VVAW headquarters in New York saying he was disgusted with the New Orleans group's ineffectiveness.

INFORMATIVE NOTE

June 15, 1972

Attached information received from a source [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] advised that him that Vietnam Veterans [REDACTED] the War in Jacksonville, Florida, have a cache of weapons allegedly stored outside Jacksonville. [REDACTED] stated the Jacksonville group recently talked of an "action" in Washington, D. C., which would involve an attack on U.S. Capitol and perhaps some police installations. There was no indication as to when this "action" would occur.

This possibly relates to the violence-prone chapter VVAW in Gainesville, Florida, whose activities are well-known to the Bureau and the organization is under intensive investigation. Metropolitan Police Department and U.S. Capitol police are being advised of possible attacks on the Capitol and police installations. A copy of attached is being furnished to the Internal Security Division of the Department. Pertinent parts of attached are being included in the teletype summary to The White House, Vice President, State Department, the military, Secret Service, and Attorney General. We are interviewing [REDACTED] regarding the above information.
